

We're Hiring French Speakers!

Who we are...

Lokafy is a startup that connects travellers with locals to provide an experience that is like having a friend show you around the city. We are based in Toronto, Canada but offer tours all around the world (250 cities and counting!). We offer the tours in English, French, German and Spanish so it is important that we have operations team members who can interact with travellers and locals in different languages. You can check out our website: Lokafy.com

What the operations team does...

- Work with an international team based in Canada, Venezuela and India to organize tours, recruit new Lokafyers (locals) and get feedback after the tours.
- Communicate with travellers and locals from around the world via email, phone calls and Whats app messages and social media (primarily Facebook).

We'd love to work with someone who:

- Has good communication and social skills and enjoys meeting new people
- Speaks French fluently (level B2 or higher)
- Strong internet connection and computer or laptop will be required as this is a remote, work from home position

What we offer:

- Paid, remote work from home position; full time (₹ 7500/month) or part time (₹ 5000/month)
- Work with an international team with diverse backgrounds and skill sets
- Opportunity to practice your language skills with native speakers from around the world
- Be part of a growing startup that is changing the way people travel, making it more about the people you meet, not just the places you see.
